

Redwood Sail and Power Squadron

a unit of United States Power Squadrons®

Boating is fun.. We'll show you how

Marine Communication Systems Class

- Would you like to grow your knowledge of Marine Communication Systems to enhance your boating safety?
- Would you like to know how to install and maintain a VHF radio on your boat?
- Would you like to know how to use the advanced safety features on your VHF Radio?

If you so, then come join the Marine Communication Systems Class offered by the Redwood Sail and Power Squadron.

When: Thursday nights 7pm – 9pm, starting January 13th

Where: Santa Rosa California

For more Information: Call Bob Capps for additional Information: 707-537-8593

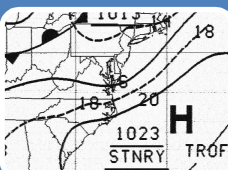

Grow Your Radio Knowledge and Skills

- Installation and Maintenance of Radios & Antennas
- Proper Radio Procedures and Channel Usage

Marine Radio Trancievers

- Short Range and Long Range Communications
- How Radios Work

Radios as a Safety Tool

- These can save your life: DSC, MMSI, EPIRB, GPIRB
- Access to Safety Information: NAVTEX, Weather, AIS