Fellow Mariners:

Looks like winter has arrived. Sometimes we don't even get snow for Christmas, but unless the rain washes it away, it looks like snow will be here this year.

I miss the lobster bake, the Christmas dinner meeting and the monthly Squadron dinners. With the virus becoming more widespread, it's prudent to say that we will not be meeting socially as a group until maybe the spring. It's not possible to plan for something that we know can't or shouldn't happen. Not everyone can do Zoom or Skype on a computer; some of us are more prone to getting sick; and it's just not as much fun as meeting in person. However, I do intend to hold a couple of Zoom meetings with the Bridge this winter. In the meantime, I've got two milestone awards for well-deserving members and will present those at our next official Squadron and District functions. I miss seeing all of you! We have always enjoyed gathering and learning something new at our meetings. I know this message is not very uplifting but rest assured, this pandemic will end.

I sincerely wish you all happy, healthy and safe holidays.
